SUMMER 2026

Summer collections at John Lewis focus on confidence, encouraging customers to have fun with fashion without compromising on quality. Colours are bold and punchy, while silhouettes are designed to make a statement with cinched waists and voluminous skirts, creating in a curated, premium wardrobe.

For John Lewis, shades of yellow, orange and red bring warmth and summer energy. Florals receive a modern makeover: an oversized painted poppy design features on a yellow column dress, while ditsy florals appear on a utility style co-ord to offer a sporty femininity. A vibrant, pure leather yellow jacket is styled with matching jeans and a checked mac to tick three trends in one, though each piece is equally effective when paired with wardrobe staples.

The J. Lewis label launches into womenswear this season. Key highlights include a white blouse, a neutral suit, and an A-line dress, all elevated with thoughtful design details and premium fabrics, such as pure silk, Japanese denim, leather and merino wool.

AND/OR debuts the first ever barrel leg denim short, taking the popular jeans shape into the summer season. The new design marks a shift in summer denim and offers a structural alternative to a traditional warm-weather staple. Our hero denim brand also introduces embroidered denim alongside a white wide leg style, both of which offer an elevated take on summer dressing.

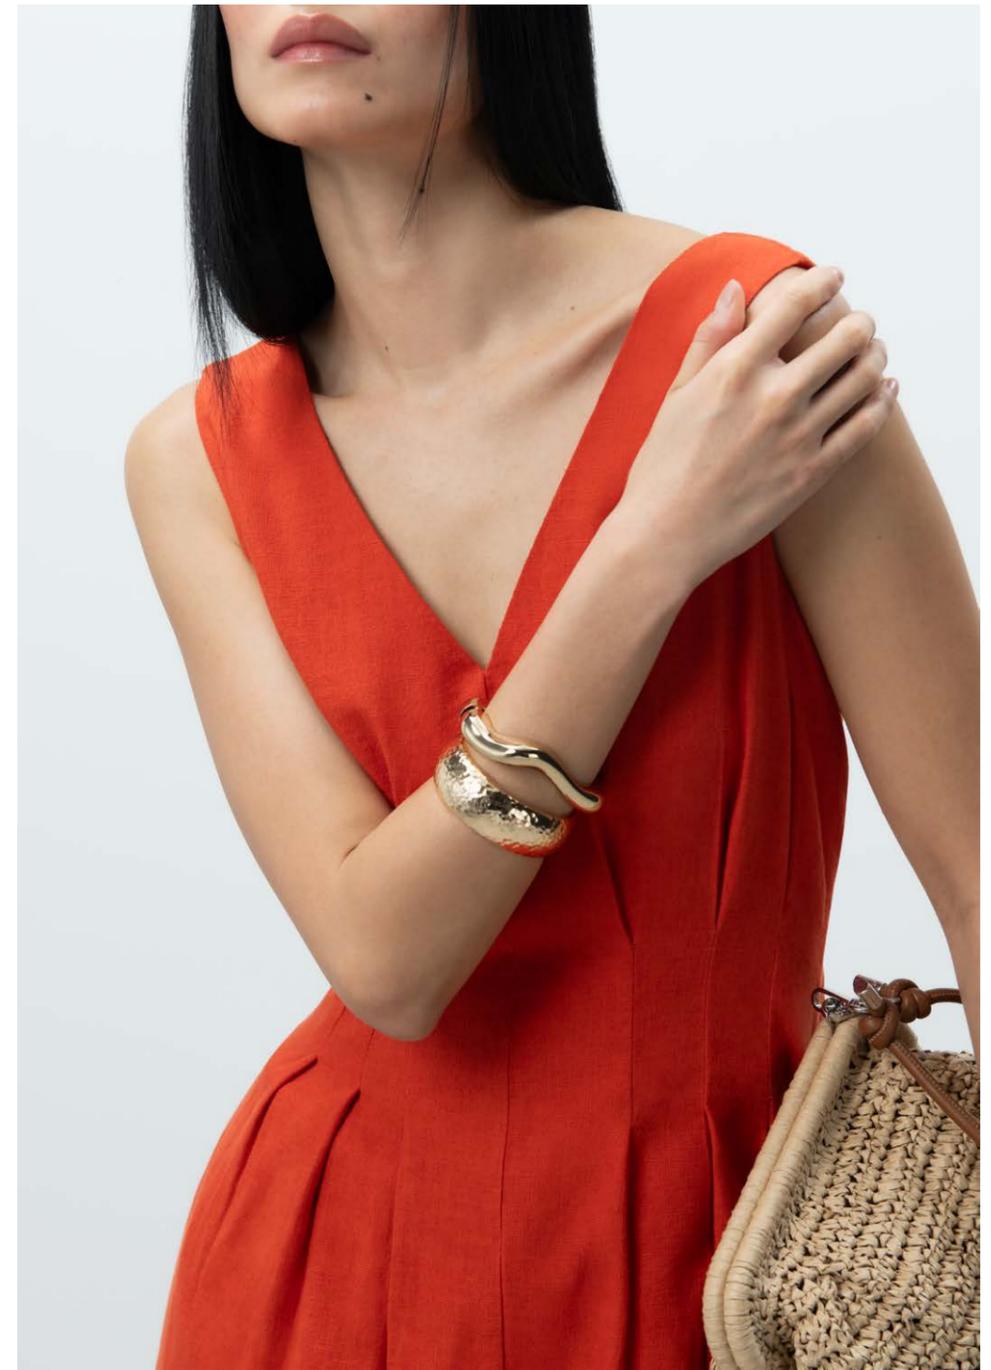

New brands continue to drop throughout the season, including St. Agni and Faithfull The Brand.
